30 DAYS' FREE TRIAL No Money to Pay Down

WITH the opening of our store tomorrow morning a broad-gauge plan of selling pianos in Washington and one which eclipses all previous efforts will be inaugurated.

We are now exclusive Washington agents for the world renowned and by co-operation with the factory we are enabled to introduce into Washington homes one hundred and fifty (150) instruments with BIG inducements in the way of easy payments and a pile of liberal conditions and privileges which do not go with everyday piano selling. Here's our sensational offer:

A $350 Frederick Piano at the Sensational Price of $248.75.

An Actual Saving of $101.25
THIRTY DAYS FREE TRIAL, TOO

Agents in Other Cities Are Now Selling These Frederick Pianos for Their Full Price, $350.00

EACH Frederick Piano is GUARANTEED FOR TEN YEARS—not the usual word-of-mouth guarantee—and in its stead a guarantee as strong as can be written in the English language is stamped right into the case by the maker. Included in our remarkable selling plan is our THIRTY-DAY FREE TRIAL offer, which assures every purchaser that the piano is just what we claim. So to every purchaser we say: "Try this piano for thirty days right in your home, before you decided to buy. We'll also agree to exchange the piano for any other new piano sold by us of equal or greater value without the loss of a SINGLE PENNY, at any time up to within one year from the day it was purchased."

An Important Feature—The Life Insurance

On the co-operative plan—the piano is not lost to the family if the breadwinner dies—if the source of income is stopped by death. The family does not have to work and worry to meet the remaining payments. We voluntarily cancel all future payments immediately, and a RECEIPT IN FULL is given to the family of the deceased. There are no more payments to be made. Isn't this a comforting and reassuring feature?

A Most Convenient Thing—An Account at HECHT'S Seventh Street. Note: We have a few more slightly used pianos on our floor. No money down and 10 days free trial. One as low as $95.

Women's Cloth Coats

We have something very new and attractive in this line—a new material—DUVETINE.

It's delightfully soft and rich in appearance, the colorings are beautiful and it gives plenty of warmth for the coldest weather without being weighty or cumbersome.

These "Duvetyn" Coats are shown in both short and long lengths, and embody the lines which will feature fashionable outer garments this winter.

Your Fur Garments should be altered and repaired immediately, as styles have greatly changed from those of past seasons.

Fortunately for you the new styles are shorter and the coat you now have can probably be altered to conform to these late ideas without requiring additional material.

Our workrooms are now in position to do such work promptly, but the time is getting very short when we can offer you reduced prices for it.

Bring your coats to us at once, and we'll gladly tell you what can be done to give you a fashionable garment at the very lowest cost.

IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

RETURN OF PRESIDENT'S FAMILY MAY BE THIS WEEK.

Marriage of Ensign Field and Miss Egan Today—Other Weddings—Notes.

Mrs. Wilson and her daughters may return this week from Cornish, N. H., spending a few days in New York en route. Miss Bones has already arrived at the White House and was with the President's party at the theater last night.

Mr. Samuel W. Curriden has sent out invitations for the marriage of his daughter Isabel and Mr. John Raymond Weyrich. The ceremony will take place Wednesday evening, October 23, at 8 o'clock at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church. Mr. Weyrich and his bride will be at home December 30 and January 13 at the Thomas, on Thomas circle.

Mrs. Victor Kauffmann has returned from New Hampshire, where she spent the summer at Camp Percy. Last week she spent in New York.

Invitations were sent out yesterday by the Shoreham Hotel for a series of afternoon dances to be given every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoon in the ballroom of the hotel from 4 to 6 o'clock, beginning October 21. This is the first time anything of the kind has taken place in Washington, and promises to be one of the most interesting features of the season.

A wedding event of great interest to a large circle of friends here and elsewhere will be the 4 o'clock ceremony today at the Brighton which will unite Miss Mildred Edgerton Pearn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lee Pearn, and Ensign Alexander Ligggett and David Eker, U. S. N., and Mr. Alfonso W. Pezet will be ushers.

The marriage of Miss Alice Grace Simms and Mr. Philip Outbridge Macqueen of Capitol View, Va., and Panama will be a home ceremony this evening, with the Rev. John McGill of the Plains, Va., officiating.

Miss Ellen Alloway will attend the bride, and Mr. Edgar R. Gohl of Potomac, Pa., a graduate of Lehigh University, 1907, of the same class as the bridegroom, will be best man. The bride's cousin, Miss Jenny Ayres of Geneva, N. Y., will play the wedding march, and Mr. Norman E. Sims, brother of the bride, will give her in marriage.

The couple will leave for the south tonight, and after a stay in New Orleans, will go to Central America. They will be at home at the Washington Hotel, Panama, after December 1. Mr. Edwin Paul Watts and Miss Watts came down from Philadelphia Saturday to attend the dinner party given by John Alexander Ligggett and David Eker, in honor of Miss Sims and her wedding party, and also for the dinner given by Miss Alloway Sunday night in honor of Miss Sims, when covers were laid for ten.

Monday night the bridegroom gave a theater party and a supper, and last night the bride was hostess at a supper party following the rehearsal.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac T. Mann, who are touring in New York state, will go to their West Virginia place before coming to their home here for the winter. Mrs. Mann returned last week from a short trip abroad.

Mrs. Jean Delmour, widow of Lawrence Delmour, familiarly known as "Larry," once prominent in Tammany Hall and an intimate of Richard Croker, was married last night to Mr. Peter J. Drury of this city, in the Church of St. Ignace.
